A-4) DEFINITION OF EX-SERVICEMEN MEANT FOR THE POST OF CONSTABLES (EXE) MALE

The definition of Ex-servicemen as defined in Govt. of India. Ministry of Personnel, Public Grievances & Pensions, Department of Personnel & Training, New Delhi's O.M. No. 36034/5/85-Estt.(SCT) dated 14-4-1987 is given as under:

“An ex-serviceman” means a person, who has served in any rank whether as a Combatant or non-combatant in the Regular Army, Navy and Air Force of the Indian Union and who retired from such service after earning his/her pension; or

- (i) whose discharge book has the endorsement of Ex-servicemen; or
- (ii) who has been released from such service on medical grounds attributable to military service or circumstances beyond his control and awarded medical or other disability pension; or
- (iii) who has been released, otherwise than on his own request, from such service as a result of reduction in establishment; or
- (iv) who has been released from such service after completing the specific period of engagements, otherwise than at his own request or by way of dismissal or discharge on account of misconduct or inefficiency, and has been given a gratuity; and includes personnel of the Territorial Army of the following categories, namely:-
 - a) Pension holders for continuous embodied service
 - b) Persons with disability attributable to military service; and
 - c) Gallantry award winners.”

The Territorial Army personnel will however be treated as ex-servicemen w.e.f. 15-11-86.

“Ex-Servicemen who are paid from the Central revenues may be re-enlisted as Constable at the discretion of the appointing authority if their discharge certificates shows previous service as good or of higher classification/grading, provided that :

- i) They present themselves within two years of their previous discharge.
- ii) They conform to the educational standards laid down for recruits from open market, and such endurance/efficiency as prescribed by the Commissioner of Police, from time to time by issuing necessary Standing Orders.
- iii) They are medically fit for police service according to standards prescribed for recruits, and
- iv) Age concession shall be allowed to them in accordance with the orders/instructions on the subject issued by the Central Government from time to time.”

Ex-Servicemen who have already secured employment under Central Government in Group 'C' & 'D' posts on regular basis after availing of the benefits of reservation given to ex-Servicemen for their re-employment are NOT eligible for fee concession or for claiming benefits of reservation under Ex-Servicemen category. However, they are eligible for the age relaxation only.

The period of “Call up Service” of an Ex-Serviceman in the Armed Forces shall also be treated as service rendered in the Armed Forces for purpose of age relaxation.

For any serviceman of the three Armed Forces of the Union to be treated as Ex-Serviceman for the purpose of securing the benefits of reservation, he must have already acquired, at the relevant time of submitting his application for the Post/Service, the status of ex-serviceman and /or is in a position to establish his acquired entitlement by documentary evidence from the competent authority that he would complete specified term of engagement from the Armed Forces within the stipulated period of one year from the closing date of the application form.

EXPLANATION

The persons serving in the Armed Forces of the Union, who on retirement from service, would come under the category of “ex-serviceman” may be permitted to apply for re-employment one year before the completion of the specified terms of engagement and avail themselves of all concessions available to Ex-Servicemen but shall not be permitted to leave the uniform until they complete the specified term of engagement in the Armed Forces of Union.

Note-1 : Break between Army service and re-employment should not exceed 2 years.

Note-2 : All such candidates who are serving in the Armed Forces and intend to apply under Ex-Servicemen category will be required to submit NOC from the department which shall clearly mention their date of discharge from the Armed Forces. NOC having no mention the date of discharge from the Armed forces will not be entertained and their Application forms will be rejected without assigning any further reasons.
